

Annotation credit program module "Computer Graphics" MPN discipline.

05 Engineering and Computer Graphics

The program revealed purpose credit module, which is to build students' abilities geometric modeling and computer methods of instrumentation products, use in their professional designing information systems, construction and design of engineering drawings and schemes according to the current standards and perform Read projection images of any geometric and technical objects, apply knowledge of computer graphics, modern information technologies in the study of other subjects and in their future careers.